Description:-

PCCOE Got Talent is a fun-filled, non-technical entertainment event inspired by the popular India's Got Latent format. The event gives students a platform to showcase their talent, creativity, humour, and spontaneity in front of a live audience and a panel of judges.

Participants can bring their unique talents to the stage, while judges interact with them through fun questions, reactions, and a simple 1–10 rating system. The focus is on entertainment, originality, audience engagement, and creating an enjoyable experience for everyone.

The event aims to provide students with a break from academics and technical activities while encouraging confidence, creativity, self-expression, and healthy participation in a fun college environment.

Judging and Evaluation Parameters:-

Each judge gives the participant a score out of 10 based on their overall performance.

Rating: 1–10

- Each participant will receive an overall score out of 10 from the judging panel.
- Before the judges reveal their scores, the participant will be asked to predict/guess their own score.
- The participant's predicted score will be compared with the actual average score given by the judges.
- Judges will consider talent, entertainment, creativity, stage presence, originality, and audience engagement while assigning the score.
- The average score of all judges will be considered the participant's final performance score.
- The self-prediction is an interactive element and will not affect the participant's actual judging score.
- In case of a tie, the organizing committee may use audience response and judges' discussion as tie-breaker criteria.

REWARDS

- Winner: Certificate + Cash Prize
- Runner-Up: Certificate
- All Participants: Participation Certificate

Rules & Regulations:-

PCCOE Got Talent is a non-technical entertainment event designed to provide students with a platform to showcase their creativity, talent, humour, spontaneity, and stage presence.

2. Performances must be appropriate for a college audience.
3. The use of explicit, obscene, sexually inappropriate, discriminatory, hateful, or abusive content is strictly prohibited.

Personal attacks, harassment, bullying, or defamatory remarks against students, faculty, staff, or any individual are not permitted. Participants are responsible for ensuring that their performance does not violate copyright or other applicable rights

3. Language & Content

1. Performances may be conducted in English, Hindi, Marathi, or other languages, subject to approval by the organizers.
2. Mild humour and roasting may be permitted, but it must remain within acceptable college standards.
3. Jokes targeting an individual's religion, caste, race, gender, disability, appearance, sexuality, or other protected/personal characteristics are not permitted.
4. Political, religious, or otherwise sensitive material should not be used in a manner that promotes hostility or targets individuals/groups.
5. The organizing committee reserves the right to stop a performance if its content crosses the permitted boundaries.

4. Time Limit

1. Each participant/team will be allotted a fixed performance time, which will be announced before the event.
2. Participants must complete their performance within the allotted time.
3. Exceeding the time limit may result in deduction of points or termination of the performance, at the discretion of the judges.
4. The organizers may provide separate time limits for different rounds.

5. Props & Equipment

1. Participants must inform the organizers in advance about any special equipment or props required.
2. Props must be safe and suitable for use inside the college premises.
3. Fire, explosives, weapons, flammable substances, dangerous chemicals, or hazardous equipment are strictly prohibited.
4. Props that may damage the stage, college property, or endanger participants/audience members will not be permitted.
5. Participants are responsible for bringing their own specialized equipment unless otherwise specified.

6. Music & Audio

1. Participants requiring background music must submit their audio files in the format specified by the organizing committee before the event.
2. Audio tracks containing prohibited or excessively explicit content will not be accepted.
3. Participants should carry a backup copy of their audio/video files.
4. The organizing committee will not be responsible for technical issues arising from corrupted or incompatible files.

7. Judging

1. The judging panel will evaluate performances based on criteria such as:
 - Talent/Skill
 - Creativity
 - Entertainment Value
 - Stage Presence
 - Originality
 - Audience Engagement
2. The judges' decision will be final and binding.
3. Participants may be eliminated at any stage according to the format announced by the organizers.
4. Judges may interact with participants or ask questions as part of the entertainment format.

8. Audience Participation

1. Audience participation may be incorporated into selected rounds.
2. Audience reactions may be considered as part of the entertainment format, where announced by the organizers.
3. Audience members must maintain appropriate behaviour and must not heckle, threaten, physically approach, or harass participants.
4. Any coordinated disruption of the event may result in removal from the venue.

9. Roast & Comedy Rules

Since the event is inspired by a comedy/talent-show format:

1. Roasting may be allowed, provided it remains playful and within the boundaries set by the organizers.
2. Humour must not become harassment or targeted abuse.
3. Participants must not reveal or circulate another person's private or confidential information.
4. Jokes involving serious allegations about another person are not permitted.
5. The organizers and judges have the authority to stop a joke/segment that crosses the acceptable boundary.

10. Respect & Conduct

1. All participants are expected to maintain respectful behaviour toward judges, organizers, volunteers, faculty, staff, and fellow participants.
2. Physical altercations, threats, intimidation, or harassment will result in immediate disqualification and may be referred to college authorities.
3. Misconduct before, during, or after the event may result in disciplinary action as per college rules.
4. Participants must follow instructions given by event coordinators and venue authorities.

11. Disqualification

A participant/team may be disqualified for:

- Using prohibited or dangerous materials.
- Performing content that violates the event's guidelines.
- Misbehaving with judges, organizers, participants, or audience members.
- Deliberately disrupting the event.
- Providing false information during registration.
- Exceeding performance limits repeatedly.
- Damaging college property.
- Engaging in plagiarism or presenting another person's work as their own.
- Violating applicable college policies.

Disqualification decisions made by the organizing committee will be final.

EVENT STRUCTURE

The event consists of three progressive rounds, with eliminations after each round.

Sr. No.	Event Stage	Process / Description
1	Registration	Open registration for students 1–2 weeks prior to the event, with participants selecting their preferred category.
2	Auditions Shortlisting	Conduct a brief screening round to finalize the lineup and running order , if required.
3	Welcome & Opening	The host introduces the event, external judges/guest, and explains the “Guess Your Score” format.
4	Performance Rounds	Each student participant/act performs on stage, with each performance time-boxed .
5	Score Guess	Immediately after performing, the participant writes their self-assessed score on a sealed card and submits it to the coordinator.
6	Judges’ Verdict	The external judging panel announces the official score for the performance.
7	Match Reveal	The participant’s sealed score is opened and compared with the judges’ score. A match places the participant on the prize contention list .
